

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air the biased "Stolen Honor" is absolutely antithetical to the notion of public airways. I remember from my days in radio that stations were obligated to give equal time to both sides of an issue and preserve balance in broadcasting.

If Sinclair wants to fund a biased documentary, and even offer it for broadcast, that is their right. However, forcing any Sinclair-owned property to air it is A) illegal; and B) unethical.

Please consider changes that would maintain more control at the local level and keep the airwaves out of the hands of big corporations seeking only to promote their own agenda. Also, please cite Sinclair for FCC violations if they continue with this plan. Thank you.
